BUNNYLOVR

Film by Katarina Zhu

DRAMA / USA / 2025 / 86 MINS

Rebecca (Katarina Zhu), a shy young woman in her mid-20s living in New York City, leads a seemingly average life while moonlighting as a cam girl. Her only solace is her best friend Bella (Rachel Sennott), but their bond is tested when Rebecca receives an unsettling gift—a live bunny—from a peculiar client (Austin Amelio) whose influence begins to entangle her emotionally and financially. As her relationship with the client grows darker, Rebecca must confront the isolation and vulnerability that have left her adrift.

DIRECTOR: Katarina Zhu

CAST: Katarina Zhu, Rachel Sennott (Bottoms, Saturday Night), Austin Amelio (Hitman, The Walking Dead), Perry Yung (The Knick, John Wick: Chapter 2), Jack Kilmer (Lords of Chaos, Palo Alto)

PRESENTED BY FILM AT LINCOLN CENTER

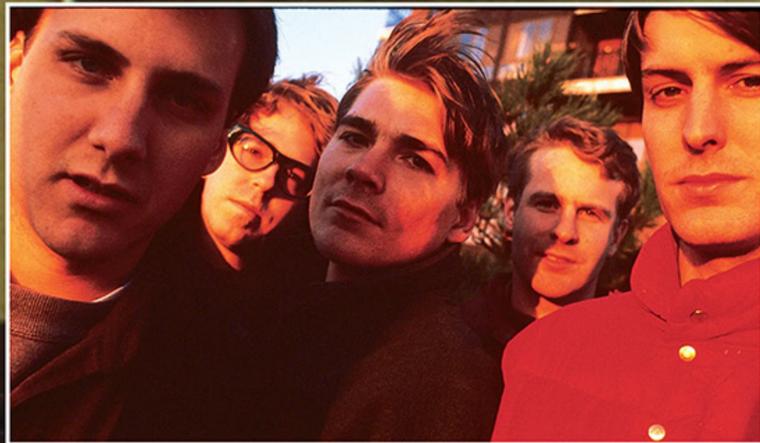

MUSIC DOCUMENTARY / 2024 / USA / TBD

PAVEMENTS is a kaleidoscopic journey blending reality and fiction, chronicling the rise of Pavement, one of the most iconic bands of the 90s. Filmmaker Alex Ross Perry intertwines BTS footage from a Hollywood biopic, rehearsals of an off-Broadway musical, and a pop-up museum exhibit, capturing the band's ironic slacker attitude akin to Sonic Youth and R.E.M. With inventive storytelling, the film celebrates Pavement's influence and offbeat charm, promising a satisfying experience for fans and newcomers alike.

DIRECTOR: Alex Ross Perry (Listen Up Phillip, Her Smell)

FEATURING: Pavement, Joe Kerry (Stranger Things), Nat Wolff (Paper Towns), Jason Schwartzman (Asteroid City), Tim Heidecker (Tim and Eric's Bedtime Stories), Fred Hechinger (Butcher's Crossing), Zoe Lister-Jones (Slip)

“NIFTY...WHIPSMART...SUBVERSIVE”

VARIETY

COMEDY, DRAMA / USA / 2024 / 89 MINS

When disillusioned 25-year-old law student Mackenzie (Sofia Black-D'Elia) experiences a “real life meet-cute” with Finn (Ray Nicholson), a handsome and charming journalist who isn't afraid to show affection, Mackenzie starts to believe that true love may actually exist. But when Finn's dark side emerges, she finds herself trapped in a tumultuous cycle of emotional abuse. A sharp and honest directorial debut, I LOVE YOU FOREVER exposes the all-too-common secret fear of many single, young, straight women: that any man who would treat their girlfriend as well as the male lead of a 90s rom-com is, in fact, out of his mind.

DIRECTOR: Cazzie David, Elisa Kalani

CAST: Sofia Black-D'Elia (Single Drunk Female), Ray Nicholson (Promising Young Woman, Something From Tiffany's), Oliver Cooper (Project X), Cazzie David

NOT AN ARTIST

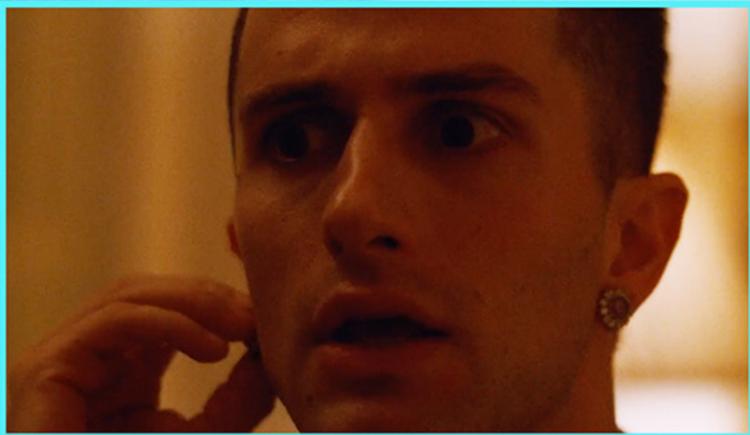

COMEDY, DRAMA / USA / 2023 / 97 MINS

NOT AN ARTIST follows Alice (Alexi Pappas), an aspiring writer who secures a spot in an exclusive artist residency. Upon arrival, she learns that the program is less of a creative haven and more of a high-stakes competition—where those who 'lose' must abandon art forever. To make matters worse, her kind but clueless father (Matt Walsh) crashes the residency, looking for a free place to stay. As Alice navigates eccentric fellow artists and her own family chaos, she's forced to confront the ultimate question: does she have what it takes to be a 'real' artist, or should she just call it quits? Packed with quirky characters and irreverent humor, NOT AN ARTIST is a funny and heartfelt exploration of creativity, authenticity, and the absurdity of it all.

DIRECTOR: Alexi Pappas, Jeremy Teicher

FEATURING: RZA (Wu-Tang Clan), Matt Walsh (Veep), Cleopatra Coleman (Clipped), Hayley Joel Osment (The Sixth Sense), Rosalind Chao (Body Problems), Gata (Anyone But you), Alexi Pappas, Robert Schwartzman
